New York gave she home fans a chilly resting in the sixth unning and but for poorly judged hase running had a good chance to win the contest right there. Devore began by bunting and beating out the throw to first. Hauser made a miscue on Doyle's grounder and there were runners on first and second, Willis's benders lost their cute little curls at this point and a bombardment began. Murray shot the ball past Zacher on a line, the leather going at a cannon ball clip. Devore and Dayle scored with ease. Murray was coached in by Crandall, but a well relayed throw from Zacher to Konetchy to Phelps and Jack was a goner at the plate by a good margin. That it was a mistake to send Murray in was shown a moment later when Seymour singled to right. Bridwell followed with a single past second. Devlin hit to right and Evans made a fine catch while going at full speed. Merkis shot one at full speed at Hauser, but the little fellow made the stop, forcing Bridwell at second.

The Cardinals secred their fourth and final run in the seventh inning on a fittke two bagger and Zacher's single.

The singles occupied the attention of the prayers, singles occupied the attention of the piayers, the event drawing an entry of thirty-one. Considerable disappointment was felt over the absence of Lyle E. Mahan, last year's winner. It was said he found it impossible to be present because of an engagement at thevy Chase. The match of the day was between Frederick C. Inman, the metropolitan champion, and G. A. L. Dionne. The latter showed a greaty in-proved game this year, while Inman is errate though brilliant in streaks. He came out victorious, but Dionne gave him a great tusele. The match went to three sets, and in the third Inman at least fitteen times came within a stroke of winning. times came within a stroke of winning, only to be stalled of each trip by his opponent.
